

The Huntington Beach Art Center College Volunteer Program

The Huntington Beach Art Center (HBAC) is seeking volunteers!

HBAC is introducing its new volunteer program, designed to provide accredited volunteer opportunities for college students enrolled in the arts, humanities, or education. Effective immediately, HBAC's College Volunteer Program (CVP) is recruiting volunteers for its annual Summer Art Camp, which is scheduled for June 24 through July 26, 2019.

About the Huntington Beach Art Center:

The Huntington Beach Art Center (HBAC) is a community arts and cultural center serving Huntington Beach and the Southern California region. Located in downtown Huntington Beach, HBAC presents the works of artists producing in all mediums. Through exhibitions, performances, film/video screenings, lectures, and educational programming, the HBAC serves to advance public awareness and understanding of cultural, historic, and contemporary perspectives. The HBAC creates opportunities for local, regional, and national artists and the community to share in a climate of experimentation, education and experience. The Huntington Beach Art Center is a public/private partnership with the City of Huntington Beach and the Huntington Beach Art Center Foundation, a non-profit private corporation.

About Summer Art Camp:

Summer Art Camp is a 4-week art program geared towards children ages 6 to 12. The program offers four themed weeks of art activities, taught by professional artists, structured in half and full day sessions. A variety of visual and performing arts and recreation activities are explored every week.
